

Brought to you through the cooperative efforts of McHenry County College
The Shah Center, The Illinois Small Business Development Center,
The Center for Non-Profit Leadership, MCC Conference Center

LIVE IN ABUNDANT SUCCESS

Presented by: Eric Guy

February 10, 2010 8 a.m. - 11 a.m.

The Shah Center

4100 W. Shamrock Lane

Fee: $39 Course ID#NTL S79 001

In this seminar you will be introduced to a new understanding of yourself, others and the world. By changing your past conditioning and habits, find the key to unlocking your full unrealized capacity and brilliance.

Topics addressed include:

- Understanding your brain and reformatting your hard drive
- Accepting a paradigm of success
- Unlocking your potential
- Learning the science of being successful
- Utilizing your creativity and innovative spirit
- How to get more, give more, and do less
- Creating Balance in your Personal and Professional Life
- ...and How to Unlock Your Inner Genius

About the presenter:

From small business owners to corporate clients, Eric Guy helps people make the choice to live in abundant success. In addition to training internationally, Eric designs and facilitates training to assist various clientele and professionals within the mental health, educational and business fields, as well as providing customized programming in the form of intensive in-home treatment and individualized coaching. He has been a guest on many radio and television programs and is currently working on projects in Africa and South America.

For more information or to register:

815-455-8593 shahcenter@mchenry.edu